

Saint Stephen the First Martyr and Archdeacon

At "Lord, I have cried":

(After Mousike kypsele)

Glory. Second Tone.

Δ
Δ

(A) Un- to the King and Lord of all, Who is born up - - on the earth, Steph-en is pre-sent - - - ed as an ex-ceed - - ing - - - ly bright crown, not made of pre-cious stones, but ar-rayed with the gar - - - - lands of

(B) his own blood.

(A) Where-fore come, ye that love

the Mar- - - tyrs, let us gath-er gar-lands of - - - song, and crown-ing our heads with them, and sing-ing hymns, let us say: Thou who wast a-dorned in soul with wis- - - - dom and grace, O First Mar- - - - tyr of christ God, ask that peace and great men- - - cy be grant-ed un- - - - to us.

Both now. Same Tone
 Of the Feast (1st Hymn of the Aposticha, Dec. 25)